DAY 2 - Nov 25: Breakfast and morning Private City Tour with German Speaking Guide to discover the city Buenos Aires is a charming city with a strong influence of most of the main European cities. Beautiful walks, avenues, parks, monumental buildings, cafes, museums and churches gathered in 26 districts, each with its own distinct personality, gives it a truly cosmopolitan air.

DAY 3 - Nov 26: Breakfast and morning transfer to Pilar Golf -

This 7221 yards long field will test your power distance as well of your short game on its 18 championship holes built on more than 247 acres. It also has a quite impressive, luxurious and large club-house with several services for golfers.

This course hosted the Argentine Open in 2006 and hosted the same tournament on December 2011 and on January 2015 hosted the first edition of the Latinamerican Amateur Championship, an event sponsored by the The Masters Tournament,

DAY 4 - Nov 27: Breakfast and transfer to Olivos Golf, considered the best golf course in Argentina, it is ranked 71st on the Golf Digest's "best golf courses outside US."

The course currently has 27 holes and it's considered one of the best in South America for its beauty, tight fairways and fast greens. Olivos Golf has been host of international tournaments such as the Masters -first in South America- the "Abierto de la Republica", the "copa los Andes", among others. It has also been played by the best European and American players

Red course holes 12 and 13 may not be so hard but they will prepare you for the great hole 15, one of the 2 holes in Argentina that are ranked between the best 500 in the world. Then you will have a breathe at 16 after you get to the 17, a par 3 with 209 yards that needs to be flown "tee to Green" or you will end up in some of its 4 bunkers. This course has hosted the Golf World Cup on 2010

Return to the hotel.
